

DO YOU WANT A HOUSE?
IF YOU INTEND TO RENT OR BUY REAL ESTATE READ
"THE TIMES" ADVERTISING
COLUMNS.

VOL IV.—NUMBER 1,467.

RICHMOND, VA., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1890.

THE NEWS SUMMARY.

Forecast for Virginia and North Carolina:

Rain and stationary temperature.
James Mathews took poison yesterday he will likely recover.—The Union Democratic Club held a meeting.—Rev. W. F. Hines, of Norfolk, has accepted a call to West View Baptist church of this city.—The Richmond and Harrisburg Company has been organized.—The Manchester City Council met.—The report about the street railway deal in this city was denied.—E. E. Lee camped.

VIRGINIA.

Some weeks ago a man calling himself L. Walter Wood, of the New York National Building and Loan Association, visited the little town of Falls Church.—Mr. Parker C. Wyeth, of Mississ., Mo., was married to Miss Ellen Ashton Homer, Wednesday.—Temporary buildings have proven a paying investment in Alexandria.—Quite a sensation was caused in Falls Church by the arrival of Mr. Wood, who has created a very noisy impression in that city.—A new farm and a big investment by an English syndicate are among the latest events of interest in Buena Vista.—The tobacco farmers have decided to supply themselves with fertilizers at reduced rates, Botetourt county has greatly prospered during the past year, and farmers are as happy as they can be.—The Democrats in the Second District have changed the date of their convention to October 7th, and have decided that a nomination must be made.—A daring attempt to assassinate a Western Union messenger boy was made in Norfolk Tuesday night.—Dyer and Schreiber, who fought a dueling pistol duel, were shot dead.—Frank Maloney, a jeweler clerk, of Norfolk, has kidnapped, with about $1,000 of his firm's money.—The Dakota gentlemen who wanted to buy lands in the vicinity of Petersburg were unable to do so on account of the high prices asked.—The Democratic convention at Prince George hardly endorsed the renomination of Hon. E. C. Venard.—Crop reports excellent in Dinwiddie and surrounding counties—James Williams, brakeman on the Virginia Midland road, was instantly killed at Lynchburg last night.—Spradley Barber, of Petersburg, is short in his accounts about $70, and has fled the city.

WEST VIRGINIA.

A new factory, to study the wholesale trade generally, is to be established in Weston, which yesterday celebrated the completion of the Lynchburg and Durhamburg railroad in grand style. Addresses were made by Governor McKinley, Senator Daniel W. A. Gurnee and others—

Frank Maloney, a jeweler clerk, of Norfolk, has kidnapped, with about $1,000 of his firm's money.—The Dakota gentlemen who wanted to buy lands in the vicinity of Petersburg were unable to do so on account of the high prices asked.—The Democratic convention at Prince George hardly endorsed the renomination of Hon. E. C. Venard.—Crop reports excellent in Dinwiddie and surrounding counties—James Williams, brakeman on the Virginia Midland road, was instantly killed at Lynchburg last night.—Spradley Barber, of Petersburg, is short in his accounts about $70, and has fled the city.

WISCONSIN.

On the question of the approval of the joint resolution of last Tuesday's proceedings in the House yesterday, no quorum appeared and the House adjourned.—After routine business the Senate took up the Land Portion bill, and adjourned on that subject until Monday.—Senators Alderson, Thompson, and Sargent, of Wisconsin, had an interview with Adlai Stevenson Saturday afternoon.—The Republicans of the State convention to be held in Madison on Sept. 12, will be held on Sept. 13.—The Senate adjourned yesterday to be reconvened on Sept. 13.—The Venable-Langston case remains unchanged, and from all indications Langston is likely to remain on the outside of the present Congress, at least for some time.

NEW YORK.

Boss Crozier is long gone at the helm of Tammany, and finds himself confronted with the solution of a number of intricate problems.—The impression is gaining ground that Meyer Granoff cannot be renominated.—Archbishop Uzzman's reception at St. Patrick's cathedral was a brilliant and impressive affair.—All the Jewish congregations of New York are preparing for the approaching holidays, and several new synagogues are to be dedicated.—Yeshiva College and its successor Black Friday in Brooklyn, and it is considered to Wall street that a serious panic must be postponed under the Government's watchful eye.—The New York brick struggle seems likely to reach a positive crisis at an early date.

GENERAL.

A sensible English syndicate, said to be made up of $50,000,000, is endeavoring to acquire all the stock of the British Columbia meat-packing firm, Miss Nannie Starburst, of Edinburgh, who has brought suit for $10,000,000 against Judge James H. Anderson, of that place, but the Judge says it is impossible.—A Chicago and Grand Trunk train ran full freight and a smash-up resulted.—The Norwegian steam steamer King Edward left the port of captain and nine men.—An ungodly mob took two negroes confined in the Amory, Miss., jail, for assaulting white women, and hung them.—An insurance gold fund has been deposited near City Hall, South Dakota, in Pennsylvania and New York are trying to save their honor, and doing great damage to the crops.—The indications are that the transients have been scattered in Wyoming, Colorado, and Lackawanna and the Western Central roads are now running full freight.—The Union Pacific will go through Texas.—Parton T. W. Arney, of a famous horse-breeding family, has said he was sorry for what he had done, and wouldn't say more.—A gas explosion occurred in a shaft in a south Wales mine, and it is feared that twelve men are lost.—A snow storm occurred at Halifax, Nova Scotia, on Saturday evening.—A German tourist gold find has been discovered.—The New York brick struggle seems likely to reach a positive crisis at an early date.

THROUGHOUT VIRGINIA.

LATEST NEWS FROM ALL OVER THE COMMONWEALTH.

Second District Democratic Convention—Happy Botetourt Farmers—Daring Attempt at Assassination—A Republican Row—The State at Large.

NORFOLK, Sept. 12.—[Special.]—The action of the Republican Congressional Committee in fixing the time for the holding of their nominating convention a week later than the Democratic convention, has caused the Democrats to change the day fixed for their convention until the 5th of October, one day later than the Republican convention. The Democrats propose to take any advantage of a split in the Republican meeting, and will make their nomination in the meantime.—A new farm and a big investment by an English syndicate are among the latest events of interest in Buena Vista.—The tobacco farmers have decided to supply themselves with fertilizers at reduced rates, Botetourt county has greatly prospered during the past year, and farmers are as happy as they can be.—The Democrats in the Second District have changed the date of their convention to October 7th, and have decided that a nomination must be made.—A daring attempt to assassinate a Western Union messenger boy was made in Norfolk Tuesday night.—Dyer and Schreiber, who fought a dueling pistol duel, were shot dead.—Frank Maloney, a jeweler clerk, of Norfolk, has kidnapped, with about $1,000 of his firm's money.—The Dakota gentlemen who wanted to buy lands in the vicinity of Petersburg were unable to do so on account of the high prices asked.—The Democratic convention at Prince George hardly endorsed the renomination of Hon. E. C. Venard.—Crop reports excellent in Dinwiddie and surrounding counties—James Williams, brakeman on the Virginia Midland road, was instantly killed at Lynchburg last night.—Spradley Barber, of Petersburg, is short in his accounts about $70, and has fled the city.

PETERSBURG.

Land Buyers Driven Off by High Prices—Miscellaneous and Personal.

PIERRESON, Sept. 12.—[Special.]—The Sunday school of the Market Street Methodist church had a very enjoyable picnic in Prince Grove, in Dinwiddie county, today. The gentleman from Dakota who wanted to buy land in this vicinity were unable to do so on account of a split in the Republican meeting, and will make their nomination in the meantime.—A new farm and a big investment by an English syndicate are among the latest events of interest in Buena Vista.—The tobacco farmers have decided to supply themselves with fertilizers at reduced rates, Botetourt county has greatly prospered during the past year, and farmers are as happy as they can be.—The Democrats in the Second District have changed the date of their convention to October 7th, and have decided that a nomination must be made.—A daring attempt to assassinate a Western Union messenger boy was made in Norfolk Tuesday night.—Dyer and Schreiber, who fought a dueling pistol duel, were shot dead.—Frank Maloney, a jeweler clerk, of Norfolk, has kidnapped, with about $1,000 of his firm's money.—The Dakota gentlemen who wanted to buy lands in the vicinity of Petersburg were unable to do so on account of the high prices asked.—The Democratic convention at Prince George hardly endorsed the renomination of Hon. E. C. Venard.—Crop reports excellent in Dinwiddie and surrounding counties—James Williams, brakeman on the Virginia Midland road, was instantly killed at Lynchburg last night.—Spradley Barber, of Petersburg, is short in his accounts about $70, and has fled the city.

A RADICAL ROW.

It is thought here tonight that John M. Dyer, a lawyer named Schreiber, who represents the anti-Bowden Committee of the Western Republican and a staunch Bowden man, and Schreiber is an anti-Bowden.—At the meeting of anti-Bowden men in Norfolk Wednesday night Schreiber accused Dyer of being a Radical, and said he would do whatever Dyer's son was in Norfolk yesterday, and dispatched copies of the papers containing Schreiber's remarks to him in Washington. An infinite friend, however, to touch that while he could coincide Schreiber, he would certainly not fight him a duel.

SKIPPED THE TOWN.

Frank Maloney, a jeweler, employed in Chapman & Gable's jewelry store, has skipped the town, and the firm thinks he has run off with a girl.—A number of small colored jeweler stores in Norfolk have closed out of the store by Maloney has been recovered, and the firm is making every effort to capture him. Most of the firm's training taken by Maloney were given to a man named Dyer, of the Bowden Committee, and Mr. Morgan, president of the Wires and Means Committee, are anxious to know if he will be sent to prison.

FINCASLE.

Farmers and Fertile Propects for Old Botetourt.

FINCASLE, Va., Sept. 12.—[Special.]—The Botetourt County Farmers' Alliance met in the town hall here Monday, the principal object being the communication of the results of their investigation of the sugar amendment, and declare that they would rather retain the existing schedule as to sugar than accept any new one.

Mr. George Sommerville has been called to the rectorship of the Church of the Good Shepherd (Episcopal) in Blandford.

LYNCHBURG.

Sensation Over Dr. Moore's Arrest—More Manufacturing Enterprises.

BUENA VISTA, Sept. 12.—[Special.]—Our town had quite a sensation this week, caused by the arrest of Dr. Moore on the serious charge which is familiar to your readers. The sheriff from Northampton county carried the prisoner to Eastville for trial on Friday. Dr. Moore, a lawyer and engineer, was accused of being a confederate of a negro who had met him was surprised when they heard the very serious charge against him.

A new furnace for the manufacture of iron castings for the building of the bridge at Chapman & Gable's jewelry store, has skippered the town, and the firm thinks he has run off with a girl.—A number of small colored jeweler stores in Norfolk have closed out of the store by Maloney has been recovered, and the firm is making every effort to capture him. Most of the firm's training taken by Maloney were given to a man named Dyer, of the Bowden Committee, and Mr. Morgan, president of the Wires and Means Committee, are anxious to know if he will be sent to prison.

LYNCHBURG.

Virginia Mutual Insurance Instantly Killed.

LYNCHBURG, Va., Sept. 12.—[Special.]—James Williams (white), a brakeman on the Virginia Midland road, was instantly killed about 10 o'clock tonight, while sleeping cars. He was caught between two loaded cars and horribly mangled, his body being torn to shreds.

The English syndicate which has bought the Clark property adjoining Buena Vista will, it is reported, start a large-scale manufacturing enterprise there. This property runs up to the Buena Vista, and the streets of the new town will join our principal streets.

ALEXANDRIA.

A Clever Swindle—Minor Mention of ABS.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Sept. 12.—[Special.]—Some weeks ago a gallibooted Yankees calling himself L. Walter Wood, of the New York National Building and Loan Association, struck the moneyed denizens of the pretty and growing little town of Falls Church, about ten miles above here, on the London Road, and it is said he struck it well in his pocket. The firm he was in was in route to Falls Church, and he said he was a member of a confederate of a negro who had met him was surprised when they heard the very serious charge against him.

A new furnace for the manufacture of iron castings for the building of the bridge at Chapman & Gable's jewelry store, has skippered the town, and the firm thinks he has run off with a girl.—A number of small colored jeweler stores in Norfolk have closed out of the store by Maloney has been recovered, and the firm is making every effort to capture him. Most of the firm's training taken by Maloney were given to a man named Dyer, of the Bowden Committee, and Mr. Morgan, president of the Wires and Means Committee, are anxious to know if he will be sent to prison.

A HORSE PREACHER.

He is Sorry for His Offense and Will Not Do Again.

MARSHALL, Mich., Sept. 12.—[Rev. J. W. Atchley, of Marquette, the Methodist Episcopal minister who made himself famous by getting up and managing a meeting in his town last year, has come to the aid of the Negroes in the South. He said that the association was so rich and solid that he could not let it stand, and so he has brought the Negroes to the front rather than let them be left behind.

The English syndicate which has bought the Clark property adjoining Buena Vista will, it is reported, start a large-scale manufacturing enterprise there. This property runs up to the Buena Vista, and the streets of the new town will join our principal streets.

LEXINGTON.

Mr. Fred Meyer, of St. Joseph, Missouri, was married to Miss Elisha Ashton Homer at St. James' church, Lexington, yesterday. It was a brilliant affair.

A HORSE PREACHER.

He is Sorry for His Offense and Will Not Do Again.

MARSHALL, Mich., Sept. 12.—[Rev. J. W. Atchley, of Marquette, the Methodist Episcopal minister who made himself famous by getting up and managing a meeting in his town last year, has come to the aid of the Negroes in the South. He said that the association was so rich and solid that he could not let it stand, and so he has brought the Negroes to the front rather than let them be left behind.

The English syndicate which has bought the Clark property adjoining Buena Vista will, it is reported, start a large-scale manufacturing enterprise there. This property runs up to the Buena Vista, and the streets of the new town will join our principal streets.

LEXINGTON.

Mr. Fred Meyer, of St. Joseph, Missouri, was married to Miss Elisha Ashton Homer at St. James' church, Lexington, yesterday. It was a brilliant affair.

A HORSE PREACHER.

He is Sorry for His Offense and Will Not Do Again.

MARSHALL, Mich., Sept. 12.—[Rev. J. W. Atchley, of Marquette, the Methodist Episcopal minister who made himself famous by getting up and managing a meeting in his town last year, has come to the aid of the Negroes in the South. He said that the association was so rich and solid that he could not let it stand, and so he has brought the Negroes to the front rather than let them be left behind.

The English syndicate which has bought the Clark property adjoining Buena Vista will, it is reported, start a large-scale manufacturing enterprise there. This property runs up to the Buena Vista, and the streets of the new town will join our principal streets.

A HORSE PREACHER.

He is Sorry for His Offense and Will Not Do Again.

MARSHALL, Mich., Sept. 12.—[Rev. J. W. Atchley, of Marquette, the Methodist Episcopal minister who made himself famous by getting up and managing a meeting in his town last year, has come to the aid of the Negroes in the South. He said that the association was so rich and solid that he could not let it stand, and so he has brought the Negroes to the front rather than let them be left behind.

The English syndicate which has bought the Clark property adjoining Buena Vista will, it is reported, start a large-scale manufacturing enterprise there. This property runs up to the Buena Vista, and the streets of the new town will join our principal streets.

A HORSE PREACHER.

He is Sorry for His Offense and Will Not Do Again.

MARSHALL, Mich., Sept. 12.—[Rev. J. W. Atchley, of Marquette, the Methodist Episcopal minister who made himself famous by getting up and managing a meeting in his town last year, has come to the aid of the Negroes in the South. He said that the association was so rich and solid that he could not let it stand, and so he has brought the Negroes to the front rather than let them be left behind.

The English syndicate which has bought the Clark property adjoining Buena Vista will, it is reported, start a large-scale manufacturing enterprise there. This property runs up to the Buena Vista, and the streets of the new town will join our principal streets.

A HORSE PREACHER.

He is Sorry for His Offense and Will Not Do Again.

MARSHALL, Mich., Sept. 12.—[Rev. J. W. Atchley, of Marquette, the Methodist Episcopal minister who made himself famous by getting up and managing a meeting in his town last year, has come to the aid of the Negroes in the South. He said that the association was so rich and solid that he could not let it stand, and so he has brought the Negroes to the front rather than let them be left behind.

The English syndicate which has bought the Clark property adjoining Buena Vista will, it is reported, start a large-scale manufacturing enterprise there. This property runs up to the Buena Vista, and the streets of the new town will join our principal streets.

A HORSE PREACHER.

He is Sorry for His Offense and Will Not Do Again.

MARSHALL, Mich., Sept. 12.—[Rev. J. W. Atchley, of Marquette, the Methodist Episcopal minister who made himself famous by getting up and managing a meeting in his town last year, has come to the aid of the Negroes in the South. He said that the association was so rich and solid that he could not let it stand, and so he has brought the Negroes to the front rather than let them be left behind.

The English syndicate which has bought the Clark property adjoining Buena Vista will, it is reported, start a large-scale manufacturing enterprise there. This property runs up to the Buena Vista, and the streets of the new town will join our principal streets.

A HORSE PREACHER.

He is Sorry for His Offense and Will Not Do Again.

MARSHALL, Mich., Sept. 12.—[Rev. J. W. Atchley, of Marquette, the Methodist Episcopal minister who made himself famous by getting up and managing a meeting in his town last year, has come to the aid of the Negroes in the South. He said that the association was so rich and solid that he could not let it stand, and so he has brought the Negroes to the front rather than let them be left behind.

The English syndicate which has bought the Clark property adjoining Buena Vista will, it is reported, start a large-scale manufacturing enterprise there. This property runs up to the Buena Vista, and the streets of the new town will join our principal streets.

A HORSE PREACHER.

He is Sorry for His Offense and Will Not Do Again.

MARSHALL, Mich., Sept. 12.—[Rev. J. W. Atchley, of Marquette, the Methodist Episcopal minister who made himself famous by getting up and managing a meeting in his town last year, has come to the aid of the Negroes in the South. He said that the association was so rich and solid that he could not let it stand, and so he has brought the Negroes to the front rather than let them be left behind.

The English syndicate which has bought the Clark property adjoining Buena Vista will, it is reported, start a large-scale manufacturing enterprise there. This property runs up to the Buena Vista, and the streets of the new town will join our principal streets.

A HORSE PREACHER.

He is Sorry for His Offense and Will Not Do Again.

MARSHALL, Mich., Sept. 12.—[Rev. J. W. Atchley, of Marquette, the Methodist Episcopal minister who made himself famous by getting up and managing a meeting in his town last year, has come to the aid of the Negroes in the South. He said that the association was so rich and solid that he could not let it stand, and so